STATEMENT REGARDING PTOL-85 PART B- FEE TRANSMITTAL

Sir:

On August 4, 2006 the undersigned notified the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) that the above-referenced patent application is no longer entitled to small entity status. The loss of entitlement resulted from a merger between Abmaxis, and an acquisition company, which had the effect of creating a successor of Abmaxis that is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Merck & Co., Inc. The Loss of Entitlement to Small Entity Status Statement was accompanied by a PTO/SB/80 revoking Wilson Sonsoni Goodrich & Rosati's (WSGR) power of attorney and appointing practitioners associated with Customer Number 000210.

Although the record clearly indicates that Applicants have previously informed the USPTO that the instant application is no longer claiming small entity status, the Corrected Notice of Allowance And Fees Due mailed from the USPTO on November 22, 2006 still indicates that the Applicants are claiming small entity status. In the interest of clarity, Applicants have completed section (5b) of the PTOL-85 Form included with the statement as if the information provided in the fee transmittal represents the first time that Applicants have informed the USPTO that the application is no longer entitled to small entity status.

Therefore, the issue fee due for the above-referenced application is $1400 (37 CFR 1.18(a)). The record reflects that on February 13, 2006, WSGR authorized the Director to charge its Deposit Account Number a total fee of $1000 to cover the $700 issue fee and the $300 publication fee for the above-referenced application (in response to Notice of Allowance and Fees Due mailed from the USPTO on November 18, 2005).

The instructions provided in Part B of the fee transmittal accompanying this statement requests that the Director re-apply the fees previously paid by WSGR and authorizes the Director to charge the $700 balance that is due to constitute the issue fee owed by a large entity to Merck & Co. Inc.'s, Deposit Account Number included in section (4b) of the fee transmittal.
